

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 777

---

Introduced by Assembly Member Hall

February 17, 2011

---

An act to amend Section 19855 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to gambling.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 777, as introduced, Hall. Gambling.

The Gambling Control Act provides for the licensure of certain individuals and establishments involved in various gambling activities, and for the regulation of those activities, by the California Gambling Control Commission. The act requires every person who is required to hold a state license to obtain the license prior to engaging in the activity or occupying the position with respect to which the license is required, except as specified.

This bill would require every person who is required to hold a state license to obtain the license before engaging in the activity or occupying the position with respect to which the license is required, except as specified.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 19855 of the Business and Professions
- 2 Code is amended to read:
- 3 19855. Except as otherwise provided by statute or regulation,
- 4 every person who, by statute or regulation, is required to hold a

1 state license shall obtain the license ~~prior to~~ before engaging in
2 the activity or occupying the position with respect to which the
3 license is required. Every person who, by order of the commission,
4 is required to apply for a gambling license or a finding of suitability
5 shall file the application within 30 calendar days after receipt of 6 the order.

O